CPR Certification

A course requirement for Nursing 101 and all your future nursing courses is current CPR certification. The only course that satisfies this requirement is:

Basic Life Support for the BLS Provider offered by the American Heart Association.

CPR for the Professional Rescuer offered by the American Red Cross, the 3-hour “Heart Saver” and “Community CPR” courses do not meet this requirement. We urge you to sign up for a course as soon as possible to meet this requirement.

If you are already certified and your certification expires before June 2020, you must update your certification. We will require proof of CPR certification the first day of Nursing Process class in the January of 2020. At that time, we will document for our records your certification status and its expiration date. Keep in mind for further planning that your CPR status must be current at the beginning of each of the remaining clinical courses. If it is due to expire during the course it must be updated prior to the beginning of that particular course.
